

First AAUW-PA
Women's Gateway to Equity Award

AAUW-PA has created a yearly award to be given by local branches to individuals, organizations, businesses or groups that have shown by action and philosophy the promotion of the AAUW Mission of equity for all women and girls, life long education and positive societal change. The Philadelphia Branch will give its first Equity Award to Women's Campaign International on March 8th when Executive Director, Janet Sawaya is scheduled to speak at a program sponsored by our Branch and the Philadelphia International House. The mission of WCI is increase the participation of women in democratic processes worldwide. The vision of this organization is for women to realize equal rights as agreed to by the signatories to the Platform of Action agreed to at the 1995 UN Fourth World Conference on Women. WCI was founded in 1998 by Marjorie Margolies-Mezvinsky, former Congress woman and journalist and Fredrica Friedman, former Editorial Director at Little Brown & Company.
